

Donate and #grantuswings

In 1993, almost thirty years ago, the Waldorf School in Zagreb put Croatia on the world map of countries that foster alternative education.

The Waldorf School in Zagreb is the first alternative school in southeastern Europe!

The Waldorf School in Zagreb is an active supporter of new Waldorf schools and initiatives!

The Waldorf School in Zagreb supports the potential of its students and educates them to be individuals with unique skills and interests!

Why we need your support

We need your help because after almost thirty years the school has to relocate.

The school is a non-profit organization operating solely on the parents' finances.

Since 1993, we have been active in raising the quality of education in Croatia. We have overcome many challenges, participated in international projects, developed and promoted alternative education. And now we need you!

What your donation will support

Your donation will help finance the relocation of the school and the adaptation of the new school space.
It will strengthen our future growth

By donating you ensure that the school has necessary resources for quality education

By donating you grant wings to young people who will change the world for the better!
